Albuquerque Churches NOT recognized by the Roman Catholic Church

If you, or any of your Roman Catholic family members or friends, have been attending services or receiving sacraments in the following churches - please know that these are NOT recognized by the Roman Catholic Church. It is illicit for Catholics to go to Sunday Mass at these churches. Confessions and marriages are both illicit and invalid. In order to be Catholic a church must be in union with the Holy Father, Successor of St. Peter, and the local Bishop he sends. The following churches do not accept the Holy Father. Archbishop Michael J. Sheehan, Archbishop of Santa Fe, has not appointed any Pastors or Priests to the churches listed below:
